Ms. Zhang Yan | Yangqin Performer & Educator

Ms. Zhang Yan began studying the yangqin at the age of five and graduated from Hubei Institute of Arts. After graduation, she was assigned to the People's Art Theatre, where she engaged in professional yangqin performance and stage productions, developing solid technical skills and extensive practical experience.

Now based in Canada, Ms. Zhang has long been dedicated to yangqin instruction and the promotion of Chinese traditional music. She founded the Sino-Canadian Youth Folk Orchestra and serves as its Artistic Director. The orchestra is the official overseas examination center of the Central Conservatory of Music in Canada, actively promoting musical and cultural exchanges between China and Canada.

Ms. Zhang is a rigorous and experienced teacher, having cultivated numerous students who have won awards in provincial and international folk instrument competitions. Widely respected by both parents and the music community, she is committed to helping young musicians grow in confidence and passion through music.
